

Record List of 228 Starters For Amateur Golf Tourney

Exciting Struggle Assured for National Championship at Roslyn Starting Monday.

A N entry list of 228 starters, a record for amateur golf in America, if not in the world, has been announced for the amateur championship, beginning at Roslyn, L. I., on Monday next. This unprecedented entry, exceeded only by the imposing total of 230 starters in the open championship at Inverness some weeks ago, presages a titanic struggle for the amateur crown such as this country has never before witnessed.

The further fact that England has sent over her best in Talley, Weather, Lord Hope and Armour, and that every reputable amateur in the country will be on the ground ready to do or die, adds to the excitement of the contest, and emphasizes the paramount importance of the impending issue.

The entry list for the qualifying

How Golfers Will Be Paired.

Pairs designated by the letter "E" start over the Engineers' course and those marked "N" tee up at North Shore. Players will start their second round on the other course four hours later.

Ray Hunt to Help Doble Coach
ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 3.—Ray C. Hunt, star left end on the University of Washington eleven for four years, and later assistant to Olinor Doble at that university, and at the United States Naval Academy, has been engaged to assist Doble in the coaching of the Cornell varsity football team. It was announced by Homer Berry, graduate manager.

Hunt is now aiding Doble in the preliminary work before calling the squad on Monday, Sept. 13. It is expected that more than fifty candidates will report for the first practice, and that this list will be considerably augmented before the opening of the university a week or two later.

Backarach Giants Again at Ebbets Field.

Seeking more worlds to conquer, the Backarach Giants will take on the famous C. J. X. Taylor's A. B. C. nine of Indianapolis on Labor Day at Ebbets Field. The visitors will be making their first appearance in this vicinity in a decade and they are coming not with the proverbial chip on the shoulder, but with the big stick perched just above the collarbone. They have one of the hardest aggregations of sluggers in semi-pro circles and they boast that their power knows no brother whether it be Iron Man Redding, who pitched two victories against the Lincoln Giants last Sunday, Williams, Ryan or Treadwell. All of these will be seen in action. Dickey Johnson and Diannakos will do the twirling for the Hoosiers. J. W. Connors and Harry D. Williams, who put in the backing in the Backarach, are risking a few kopecks that the home team will put the P. D. Q. on the A. B. C.'s.

White Sox Buy Pitcher.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 3.—Jack Tesar, a pitcher of the Cedar Rapids Three I League Club, has been sold to the Chicago Americans. It was announced here to-day.

EVENING WORLD'S OWN SPORT HISTORY What Happens Every Day

Edman Drives Two Winners at Trois.

READVILLE, Mass., Sept. 3.—Fred Edman, the Tennessee driver, carried off the honors at the Grand Circuit races here, capturing the Boston Herald's $2,000 purse offered for two-year-old trotters and later in the afternoon leading the field in the 2:06 trot.

Edman was his entry in the juvenile event, while his unbeaten mare on the "big line" this season, Tootsie Tulse, accounted for his second victory of the day.

Favonian had little difficulty in winning the Herald purse. Trailing in each heat until the field swung into the home stretch, then brushing past the leaders in the race to the wire. Tootsie Tulse let the others make the pace in the first heat of the 2:06 trot until she showed them down in the home stretch. But in the final she led all the way.

Barley Valentine's gelding, Walnut Topper, was the best in the field in the 2:04 trot, so much faster in fact that the Ohio trainer won the final heat from Dottie Day after making a running break at the three-quarter pole. Minishes were close in the 2:14 pace, but Billy Crozier's mount, Billy Sunday, managed to stave off the rushes of his opponents at the wire in each heat.

Home May Have the Next Olympic Games.

According to semi-official information from Antwerp, it is the intention of the International Olympic Committee to award the 1924 games to Rome. The Italians have been bidding for the games ever since the London meet of 1908. Awarding them to Rome, however, would not be pleasant to the countries of the Far North.

Due to the fact that the English and American teams are made up largely of college men, it will be necessary to hold the games during the summer. But July and August, the only available months for the Americans, are terribly hot in Rome. In 1908 the unofficial Olympic games held at Athens were conducted in the spring because of the unbearable summer weather.

Consequently the American team was composed almost entirely of club men or college boys who had graduated. This country will be handicapped if the games are eventually awarded to Rome.

Harvard Football Coaching Staff Completed.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 3.—Harvard's football coaching corps for the fall campaign has been virtually completed by head coach Robert Fisher with the appointment of William J. Murray captain of last season's eleven, as coach of quarterbacks. Other assistants in addition to the staff of last year include Eric Soucy, a line star of several seasons ago, who recently returned from service in Roumania.

"Bill" Hingham, Harvard's crack runner of other years, has been appointed supervisor of track sports.

American Boxers to Compete in Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 3.—The American boxer who won championships in the recent Olympic Games at Antwerp have arrived here and will give several boxing exhibitions.

Endeavors are being made to have Daniel Moore, Palestine A. C. of New York, who won the Olympic high weight championship, meet the European amateur champion of the class.

Ring Pitches and Bats Reds to Victory.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 2.—Ring pitched and batted Cincinnati to a victory by score of 4 to 2 over St. Louis. Reds doubled in the second inning and ran and hit their way to the fourth scored the visitors' other tally. He held the locals to six hits.

Three Straight for Mack's Athletics.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 3.—Philadelphia made it three straight from Detroit, when Harry's arm and Perkins' bat sent the Tigers to a 2 to 3 defeat.
